

KYLEE HOPKINS

Kylee began her dance career at a very young age, competing and performing in Tap, Jazz, and Ballet. She received scholarships in dance and cheerleading and performed on a collegiate level. She danced as a member of various dance companies and sports teams.

In 2014 she found a passion for partnership dancing and never looked back. She currently teaches ballroom dancing and competes with students of all ages. She has been a professional instructor and performer for Dancing for a Miracle since 2015, raising money for the Children's Hospital Foundation.

She recently had the opportunity to dance in a major motion picture and has had the opportunity to be a part of Edmond's Dancing With The Stars.
