

DARREN FERNANDEZ

Fernandez, a professional instructor for over 20 years, is a co-owner of DZP Productions Inc. which created Savoy and 3Sixty. Trained by several Latin World Champions including Corky and Shirley Ballas, Fernandez holds numerous career titles. Some include American Star Ball Open Professional Latin Champion, Miami Grand National Champion-American Rhythm, Fred Astaire National Closed International American and Latin Championships, and many others.

Dancing since the age of five, Fernandez studied in jazz, tap, flamenco, Mexican folkloric, clogging, square dancing, and international Latin, American rhythm and smooth. Being the choreographer of the swing dancers' halftime show of Super Bowl XXXIII featuring Big Bad Voodoo Daddy and Gloria Estefan, was a major highlight of his career.